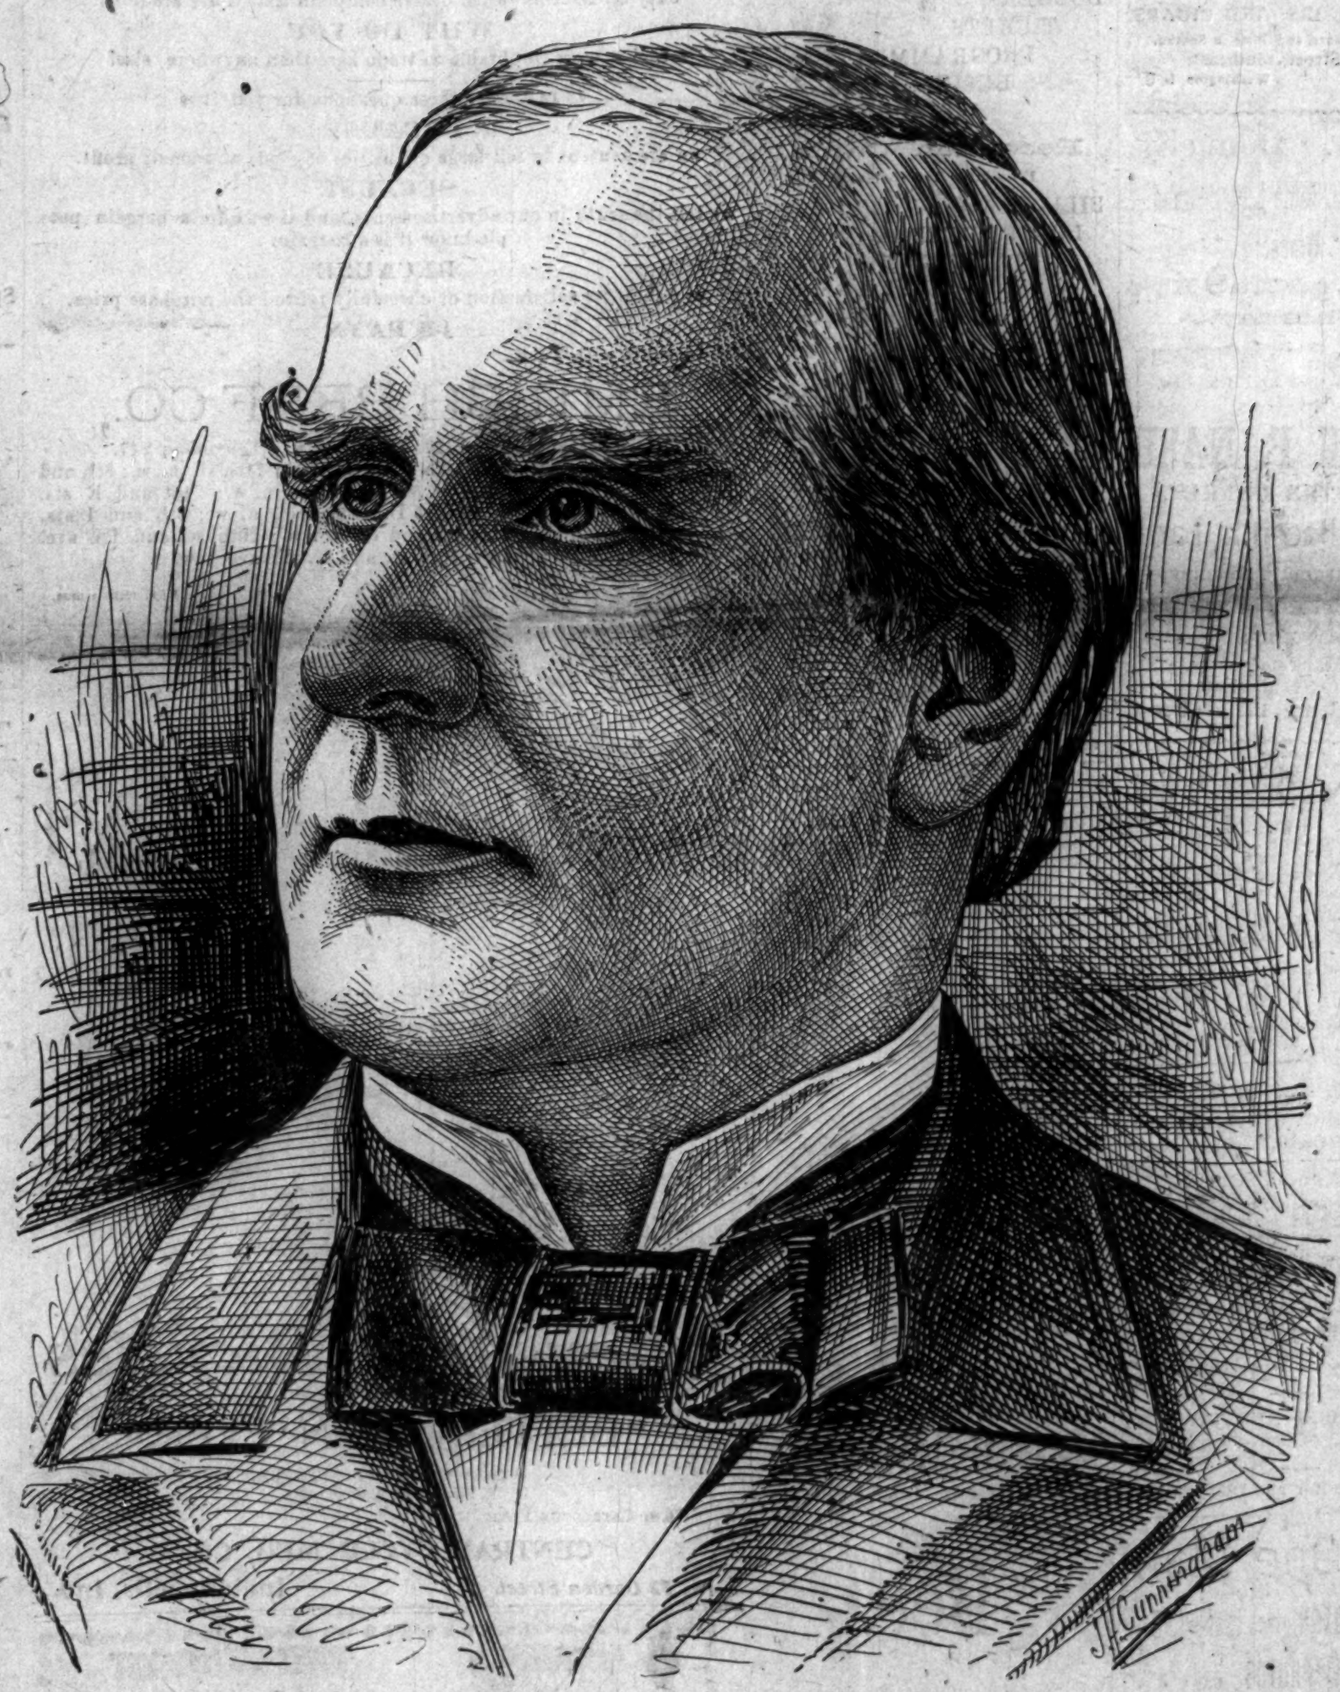
THE WASHINGTON BEE

VOL. XV. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1896. No. 23.



HON. WM. MCKINLEY.

The Nation's Choice for President.

THEY SAY.

Ah! there.

There are other brans.

I told you so, where are they?

It was a landslide and a waterloo.

Who is in the soup now?

There will be a district man appointed to the recorder's office.

Exit Taylor, your name is Dennis.

THE BEE will be vindicated.

Home rule will be observed in the District.

This city is no longer the dumping ground for played out politicians.

Let the president appoint a colored man marshal.

It is not necessary to have a colored corner.

Let the recorder's office be renovated.

There are but a few district appointments in the recorder office.

It was a landslide.

THE BEE never gets left in its prediction.

This 'ocal, acrobatic journal was on all sides.

Harry Smith, of the Gazette, is right.

Office hunters will be numerous now.

What is politics without an office?

The man who allowed his fingers to handle post office letters too freely at Indianapolis, is out for an office.

He will get one in the neck.

Men who have been indicted by the grand jury for extorting letters from the mail, like the Indiana tenderfoot, will hardly suit the people in this city.

Honest men will be appointed to office.

It is amusing to see one bum indorsing the other.

What can you say now of Hanna?

It was no surprise to THE BEE.

THE BEE leads and all others follow.

THE BEE contains more advertisements than any five Afro-American journals.

It leads in everything.

For live news, THE BEE is the paper to read.

Only three cents a copy for THE BEE.

Col. Phil H. Brown is a Chesterfield.

You must read this paper if you want the truth.

Let us organize a business man's association.

It is the great man who can always win.

Let there be an immediate change in the recorder's office.

The people of this city will now have home rule.

Col. J. W. Douglass is the coming man.

Senator Allison carried Iowa in a hoop.

John Sherman is a great leader.

He is the greatest financier in this country.

What is the matter with Hanna?

H. C. Smith is the coming Ohio man.

There is to be a new leadership.

Old men will now give the boys a show.

Let the civil service be abolished.

In union there is strength.

Organize a business men association.

Now the scramble will begin.

Who is to be the great Moses?

Milt Holland is not in it.

CLOUD BURST, LANDSLIDE AND CYCLONE.

There was a cloudburst on last Tuesday which washed the silver democrats and republicans off the earth and the landslide was so ter ible that almost every state in the union was swept clear of free silver, not saying a word of the cyclone that picked 273 electoral votes for McKinley.

It was a battle to sustain the honor and dignity of the country or depreciate its credit had the democratic party won. It showed that the American people have honor and notwithstanding sentiment for party affiliation, some of the most influential democrats left their first love or idol and joined the forces for protection and sound money to save the credit of the nation, which such men as Ben Tillman, of South Carolina, Altgeld, of Illinois, and other fire eating democrats, tried to destroy. It was rule or ruin. It was also an attempt of anarchists to destroy the nation's honor under the guise of free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver. The lost cause must be avenged; a mask of some kind must be put on to deceive the people in the name of the nation's honor. Major McKinley is elected Notwithstanding the fact that a few colored orators entered the contest at the last moment, the colored man was true with but a few exceptions. He has been taught since his emancipation that the republican party, notwithstanding his shortcomings, was friendly to the colored man; that prosperity always reigns under republican rule and that he is better protected in his civil and political rights. But aside from all this the colored man is his own enemy. He has no organization. He was not a factor in this great contest. He had it not in his power to demand. Nevertheless, he humbled himself even when an attempt was made to shelf him; he appealed to the managers like suckling babes to allow them to enter the field for Major McKinley. It was a question whether they could do any good aside from casting their votes for the republican party which they have always done under adversed circumstances. They all want offices and badly at that. They are like the white man in that respect. While they only had three weeks, that is a few of them, of field work for which some of them have been paid, and indeed that is all they are entitled to. We suppose that these men are satisfied and will be willing to give those who did not get a chance at the gold bank, a chance to secure an office. But no, the colored brother does not argue that way. His philosophy is "All or none," even if it is to the detriment of his fellow being. The country is safe for four years and five months at least. Mr. Bryan must be given credit for the fight he made. He was respectable and dignified on the stump and a foe who must be watched. McKinley, the apostle of protection, is elected. Are we entitled, as a voting factor, to a cabinet portfolio? This is a question that we shall discuss.

The colored republicans stood by the republican party and voted almost to a man for the republican candidate.

Quite likely some gold democrat will go into McKinley's cabinet. Why should not an Afro American be placed in the cabinet?

THE RECORDERSHIP.

The office of recorder of deeds is distinctly a local office supported entirely out of the fees that come into the office from the transfer of property in the District of Columbia. From the time the late Frederick Douglass was transferred from the marshal's office, who had been appointed there by President R. B. Hayes, to the office of recorder of deeds by James A. Garfield there has been a national scramble for that office by outside politicians. These scrambles have been political disgraces which have reflected no credit upon the parties who have used this office as a political menace to those who have had opinions of their own but dare not express them for fear that this great office would slip from under them.

Mr. James C. Matthews, of Albany, New York, succeeded Mr. Douglass, and he made one of the best recorders the district ever had. Mr. Matthews failed of confirmation when he was first nominated, so President Cleveland again sent his name to the senate and again he was rejected. Nothing could be done but to nominate another man, so James A. Trotter, of Hyde Park, Mass., was nominated to succeed Mr. Matthews and the senate immediately confirmed him after a little contest.

After the defeat of Mr. Cleveland by Mr. Harrison, Hon. B. K. Bruce, of Mississippi, was nominated, who subsequently became a district man and who made a very acceptable recorder, giving full satisfaction to all who had business with the office.

After the defeat of Mr. Harrison, a strong fight was made by republicans and democrats to have a district man appointed, but no influence could be brought to persuade Mr. Cleveland that a home man would be acceptable to the people although 200,000 residents, which is the entire population of the district wanted a district man appointed, but to the surprise of the people, a gentleman, a scholar, statesman and citizen was succeeded by a man called C. H. J. Taylor, of Kansas City, Mo., and was asked at the time, he was inducted into office, by Lawyer J. H. Smyth, who was present at the time with the editor of this paper, whether the chair which he was about to take was large enough for him. It was subsequently shown that not only the chair but the office was too large for him. So it can be seen that the office has been thrown into disrepute by attempting to make it a colored corner for Afro-Americans. The people of this city don't want any particular office set apart for them; they are broad and liberal enough to declare their citizenship and qualification for an office over which there has not been so much scramble and one that has not been disgraced by the importation of people who have no standing at their own home or in their own state

The Bee suggests and it will make the declaration and it is its opinion and the opinion of the citizens of Washington that the district marshalship will be acceptable to them and the registry of the treasury, an office that was once filled with dignity and trust. The fact is we are entitled to a cabinet portfolio and when we ask for these minor places we expect to get them even if one of our number is not appointed in the cabinet.

At any rate we do not want the recorder's office to be considered a colored corner. We appeal to the dignity of the American race and the patriotism of the President elect. We shall discuss this question from now until the President outlines his policy so far as the people of this district and Afro Americans are concerned.

The Bee being the official organ of the Masons of this country it is hoped that the members will take advantage of its low subscription rates and subscribe at once. Send in one dollar at once for a years subscription. Don't delay.

It was a landslide as Mark Hanna said it would be.

Now is the time for the Afro American to become a factor in the body politic. In every state, city and county Afro American leagues will be organized.

That the Afro American is not a political factor was fully demonstrated in the present campaign. He has made himself a nonentity in the body politic.

It will now be to the interest of Afro Americans to organize for their own protection. That he can be made a factor in this country, it can not be denied

The colored silver paper of acrobatic proclivities, otherwise called the American made a poor reply to the editor of the Cleveland Gazette last week.

If the American colored man is not satisfied with the result of last Tuesday evening, he will find The Bee man at the same old stand. A good trailing often lets a man know how he stands.

The election on last Tuesday night was only a surprise to the fence men. There were hundreds who wanted to straddle.

The Bee contains more advertisements of first class houses than any five Afro American journals in this country.

MASONS IN THE DISTRICT

Afro American Masonic bodies like all other organizations will divide when necessity demands it. From the report of our special Masonic editor there seems to be a split among the Masons in the District of Columbia. For some time the Jackson faction has endeavored to control things by arbitrary methods and rule men who have demonstrated their superior and educational abilities over men who belong to the old school and ignorant at that. If a division in the organization will better the condition of affairs, a split could not have come sooner. Ignorance should not be placed at the head of Masonic bodies. Because men do not agree, threats have been made by the Jackson faction that they would present charges against men who are employed by the government. This is the way "niggers" talk and the characteristic of some Negroes. What has a man's office to do with his connection with the Masonics or with his adversed opinion of some men and their Masonic methods? The first attack that was ever made on Most Puissant Sovereign Grand Commander of the Supreme Council 33 degree Mason, John G. Jones, was made by Jackson, who is never happy unless he is in a masonic row. The other side has been expelled and to get even with Seville they retaliate without cause or reason, Because a man calls another a big chief he must be expelled which only shows ignorance and littleness of the Jackson faction of colored Masons.

MR. EMRICH'S ASSAILANT.

The community will be greatly pleased to know that Mr. Fred. Emrich who was so cowardly assaulted by a highwayman some time ago is out of danger.

Mr. Emrich has the profound sympathy of every Afro-American in this community, to many of them he has manifested so much friendship and consideration. It is believed that the right assailant has been caught and if so, it is hoped that he will be severely dealt with.

He will no doubt need the support of the Kansas recorder of deeds.

"Times have altered since to the mould and fashion of our will which will take stronger shapes."

"There never was a horse so sure footed but that he stumbled."

If you have the blues read THE BEE.

This is the people's paper.

Editor L. M. Lewis, of the Colored American, will resign his position to Editor Lawson and go into the office.

THE BEE is the paper.

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

The management of THE WASHINGTON BEE has decided to secure thirty thousand subscribers by January 1, 1897.

To do this it has been decided to reduce the subscription price from two dollars per year to one dollar per year and three cents per copy. This will enable all classes who want the paper to obtain it.

THE BEE is the second oldest paper in the District of Columbia white or colored. The Evening Star is the oldest.

This paper is the most reliable one and the most fearless in defending wrongs against public property and personal liberty.

THE BEE for '97 will surpass all efforts in Afro-American journalism and if you want a great race paper, THE BEE should be sent for now.

Our Inaugural Guide that is in course of preparation will be another great Afro-American enterprise for '97. Send in your names now and you will not only get THE BEE for one year for one dollar but will receive free a copy of THE BEE's Inaugural Guide for '97, which will be issued March 1.

We are placing in our press rooms a new steam engine and a fine newspaper press which will also enable the Company to do all classes of work.

THE BEE is the greatest Afro-American advertising medium in this country which is evidenced by the high class of advertisements in the paper from time to time.

THE BEE carries more high class advertisements than any other paper in this city.

1. Do you want a great race defender?

The Bee then is that paper.

2. Do you want your boys connected with a great race paper?

The Bee is that paper.

3. Has The Bee failed to defend the interests of the people when an attempt has been made to abridge them?

The Bee is that paper that has withstood the storms of opposition and oppression.

The Bee will be the paper that knows no North, South, East or West. But a paper of the people.

Toadyism in Afro-American journalism has been too prevalent in this country. The wrongs against the race have been winked at and compromised by such Afro-American editors and socalled representatives that the time has come in the history of this country that there should be at least one true defender of the people at the Capital of this republic.

Write at once for terms. Send in your names without delay.

Three cents a copy for THE BEE; $1 a year; 60 cents six months; 12 cents a month. (In advance.) Until January 1, 1897.

The long looked for concert and exhibition under the management of Miss Lulu Solomon materialized last Friday at Hillsdale Station. The entertainment was divided into two parts. Part 1, Juveniles. Part 2. Adults of the former Masters Samuels and Wilkerson deserve special notice; of the latter, Miss Lucy Staples and Miss Rebecca Young. The affair was a success.

A special meeting of the association was held on Tuesday evening at the Home, and after the regular business was finished, reports on the work of the Home were given which showed twelve persons have been accommodated. Work has been secured for seven of them, and five are now lodging in the Home. Many useful articles have been contributed by the friends, but the greatest needs of the Home at present are bedding and fuel. Contributions of money will be gladly received. OBITUARY.

Mrs. Henrietta Valentine Plummer, whose death after an illness of three days, occurred last Tuesday at 1 p. m., at the residence of her son, 640 Massachusetts avenue northeast, was born eighty years ago at Fredericksburg, Va. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church for fifty and at the time of her death was connected with Mt. Carmel on L street northwest from which place she was buried at 2 p. m. last Tuesday. Rev. Gibbon, assisted by Revs Matthews and Grayson, conducted the funeral ceremonies. Rev. Gibbons' very impressive remarks were based upon the text, "I have fought a good fight." Among the floral offerings were a magnificent anchor and a bouquet of white roses of unusual size. Interment was at Harmony, Messrs. McKenzie, Ruffin, Edmunds and Toliver acting as pall bearers. She was a devoted and loving mother and leaves three sons, C. W. and William T. Davis and the Rev. C. Fierce at whose home she passed away to mourn her loss, with their sister, Mrs. L. G. Fletcher.

The Sunday school union meeting at Bethlehem Baptist church was entirely a success and President Bagley and officers deserve great credit. Miss Mattie Bowen, Rev. Hunter and Messrs Herbert and Maxfield made speeches which were well received. Master Garnet Wilkerson who delivered the welcome address on behalf of the church, was highly congratulated.

Mrs. M. E. George's little girl is still quite ill.

HON. B. K. BRUCE.

The greatest Afro-American orator and politician in the United States. An original McKinley man.

SENATOR PROCTOR.

Of Vermont, the leader of the McKinforces and a great statesman.

THE COMING MAN.

W. Francis Thomas, Esq., a Born Leader—He is no doubt the most Popular Republican in this city—Entered the Political Contest at the Tail End and came out ahead over our old and well trained Politicians—a brilliant record of which any man should feel proud.

When Plutarch wrote the lives of eminent personages, he found some one man greater than the other. In this country we have had brilliant men. Some were born great and others had greatness thrust upon them. The man who is born great, has natural greatness and natural greatness never effects a man, should he suddenly be elevated to a position of power and trust. Such a man that The Bee presents to its readers today is W. Francis Thomas, Esq., of this city, the man who ran ahead of all other candidates as an alternate delegate to the St. Louis national republican convention in June, 1896.

This distinguished young republican was born in Montgomery county, Md., June 21, 1869, and was educated in the public schools of Maryland and Washington, and graduated with honors from the Spencerian Business College of this city. After which he traveled extensively throughout Europe and on his return he entered the real estate business in which he was successful. In conjunction with this business, he opened a large retail and wholesale coal business at the northwest corner of Fourteenth and T streets northwest in this city, where he demonstrated his liberality and charitable acts toward the worthy and needy people,

He is a member of the Board of Trade of this city, the National Guard and many other organizations of influence and character. As a

NEWSPAPER MAN

Mr. Thomas has shown his journalistic ability in more ways than one. He has been the editor of two very influential papers which have always supported the republican ticket. In the campaign in which Hon. Louis McComas made such a successful run, he canvassed the sixth Maryland district for him and also for Governor Lounds, when Maryland was snatched from the clutches of the democracy.

Mr. Thomas is a married man, having married one of the most accomplished young ladies in the state of Virginia, Miss Cook, of Norfolk, who has presented him since their happy union a little boy, Wm. Francis Thomas, jr.

There is no young republican in this city more popular than he and none thought of more than he by the best people in this community, irrespective of color, religious creed or politics. He is a man of sound executive ability and a lawyer of magnificent parts, which make him competent for any position to which he may aspire under the next administration. No republican would be more acceptable to the people of this city and no man would represent the interests of the people more than he, should he be fortunate enough to secure a responsible position. It is the honest wish and desire of the people of this city to have Mr. Thomas to represent them in some responsible position of power and trust under the next administration. He is a moral man, which is a necessary requisite in any public office. He is an honest man, which is required of any man when he is handling the people's property or money. He is a humanitarian, which is seldom found in men except when they want to fleece the poor for the benefit of themselves.

Mr. Thomas then possesses all the parts that go to make a good citizen, a thorough republican, an educated gentleman, a lawyer of ability, a man of business and a true American.

OUR WOMEN.

Mrs. E. V. C. Williams, Editor.

(Concluded from last week.)

That woman is man's equal intellectually has been made plain by the fact that only within late years have different colleges and universities opened their doors to her. In one of our prominent cities a woman was refused admission to a certain college and from that a college was started exclusively for women which ranks among the leading colleges of this country. It is known as the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania. Miss Fleming, missionary to Africa, is a graduate of that college, and before long there will be another—Miss A. Evans. Both young women are credits to the race.

Take her as a school teacher and directress she surpasses man in many ways. Let us hope before long more women will be admitted to these positions. In some schools the question of having lady principals has been discussed and like everything else has had its ups and downs, some claim it is necessary to have men principals, especially in grammar schools. But why is not a woman equally capable?

It would be a difficult matter to find many employments followed by man that women are not capable of following. Some of the most expert telegraph operators, typewriters, clerks, etc. are women. It has been said that since so many women have been clerking it has cut the wages of men down to the extent that they find it impossible to support their families as they used to, but why should she not be paid the same as man if she does the same amount of work?

She possesses no little amount of courage, especially is this true of the western women who carry mail across lonely parts of the country where they are opened to insults, yet they are performing it with as much satisfaction as men.

The avenues are broad for her and we hope she will lose no time in making the best use of her opportunities. The advantages America offers to woman in the educational line rank first with these of any other country, this is the cause of the change that has taken place with her.

Woman has and always will be looked upon as being a model of refinement and culture, and these privileges she enjoys through education do not necessitate our being masculine. So let us hope she will lose none of her charms and graces we all admire so much in her. Remembering she was created to be man's companion.—Lillie G. Capps, Ferguson & Williams College, Abbeville, S. C.

The article by Mrs. E. V. C. Williams, which appears in another column of this issue, should be carefully read by the women of Columbus. We also believe it would do our white women no harm to read it. It relates to women and their sphere in life. Judging from appearances, Columbus is a badly neglected field for the class of women referred to in the article. The shades of night are presenting many startling revelations to the observer, so we are informed. A gentleman reported the circumstances of a case, a few days ago, that does not reflect very complimentary conduct by two girls of this city. This goes to further establish the belief that, in many instances, the parents of Columbus are extremely loose in the guardianship of their children. Is there nothing the colored women of Columbus can do to better the condition of many of the boys and girls of this city? According to our judgment this city affords a broad field for women's work.—Columbus Chronicle,

D. M. Don't be ashamed of work.

L. T. Some girls are never happy.

Miss Tillie. Smoking by gentlemen in your company should not be allowed.

Theater. If going to sacred concerts on Sunday is a sin, an attempt to degrade your sister must be a crime.

B. M. Be what you are and nothing more. You can always be natural if you so desire.

Fairs. Yes, Anna, I object to certain kind of fairs. They are not conducted as they use to be. Church fairs are becoming to be unpopular.

Marriage. It is not a failure if you marry the right man. Men must learn or be taught to respect an honest girl. Divorces are very numerous now. I will admit that some girls are never satisfied no matter what their husbands do for them.

Fall Styles. Fall dresses are lovely this season. Flashy dressing has long since been abolished. You should not dress beyond your means.

D. T. It is the obedient girl who respects her mother and accepts her advice.

Divorce. Yes, it is becoming fashionable to marry and divorce. It is certainly a reflection on society.

Trained Nurses. It is a profession that the most refined lady ought to study if she likes it.

The Stage. Legitimate drama should be appreciated by most any one. You can make harm of nothing if you feel disposed.

Schools. I object to teachers being overworked. To an extent the teachers in our schools are a hard working class. I should like to see their pay equalized.

L. T. A good girl is one who commits no offense. She makes a good wife and a good housekeeper. She will be true to her marriage vows no matter what her condition in life is. The husband should be made to do everything in his power to make home happy. You can make yourself happy when you do your duty at home.

P. T. You want to know why there are so few marriages now among the girls. Because it is the girls own fault. There is not enough independence among our girls. Marriages now don't last longer than six months. The man begins to be dissatisfied or the girl concludes that she made a mistake. The man has some faults she does not appreciate or the woman deserts her household duties for something else. Girls put themselves in such a position that men become mistrustful of them. They are always looking for the lady. The moment they find one they lose respect for her and seek the company of those in whose company there is more freedom. It is better always to be the lady than to join in the falacies of today. The young wife is often left at home, while the gay husband seeks company more congenial to him. Often it is his wife's fault, then again the man realizes that life is a burden. He has his trial and troubles. He has no consoling counsellor. The wife becomes disgusted and the vows they cloth made are forgotten.

C. K. In the language of the Mignonette, "your qualities surpassing your charms have drawn from me a confession of pure love." Do as you have been instructed by your parents.

Eva. Whenever you find a man is conceited politely pass him by. He often thinks more of himself than others think of him.

It is the noble girl that wins.

The true woman is a jewel.

A quarrelsome girl is distasteful.

The truhtful girl aspires to nobility.

An honest girl knows no wrong in any one.

A suspicious girl is often guilty of offenses.

A story teller is a dangerous being

The girls who paint and powder are false. They are certainly false in books.

It is the natural face that has no marks.

A business woman is often an honest woman.

The selfish woman is the miserable woman. She thinks more of herself than others think of her.

A stylish woman is not always a conceited woman.

A conceited woman is more or less a selfish woman.

A working woman is very easily satisfied.

A dressy woman is never satisfied. She always wants.

These are the women who make home unhappy.

If noble ends you would obtain,
Count your losses and save your gains.

Prof. W. C. O. Jacques made a fine picture of Rev. Lampkins, last week.

Next week will be the Young Men's Christian Association concert.

The Ladies' Auxiliary fair of the George Leary, at Stewart's Conservatory of Music hall, is well attended. Don't fail to go. Music and dancing every night.

The free dinner at Moore & Prioleau's on Tuesday evening was first-class. These gentlemen deserve great credit for their enterprise. Fully 1500 people were served to a fine dinner on election night. From 6 to 12 o'clock the place was continually crowded.

Satterwhite's billiard parlor was crowded election night. Every table was in operation.

The Holmes' billiard rooms have been doing a thriving business this week. The hotel by the same proprietor is well patronized.

The sacred concert at the Academy of Music last Sunday evening was not so well attended.

Wm. E. Murray of South Washington is serving some of the largest churches in the city with ice cream. He is serving the Odd Fellows' fair, the 3rd Baptist and Shiloh churches, the Ladies' Auxiliary fair of the George Leary, and other plac s. He is one of the best ice cream manufacturers in the city.

The ladies auxiliary of the Nationa Steamboat Company opened a fair a Stewart's Conservatory Music hal Monday evening, October 24. The attendance was quite large. There is dancing every evening.

ART NOTES.

Since the arrival of Mr. Jacques and his art company, a new life has awakened among our people to become artists.

The art classes at the Columbia Fegro Art Co. are increasing in numbers as the lectures at the various churches are being well attended. The students at the above institution are making rapid progress.

COLUMBIA NEGRO ART Co.

On the 26th inst., the teachers of the above company met at the studio, 2358 6th street northwest, and perfected the organization of an Art Normal for the furtherance of art among the colored people of this city and country. The following officers of the normal were elected: Mr. W. S. G. Green, pres.; Miss Florence B. Jones, vice pres.; Wm. W. Hill, sec. and editor; Miss Carrie B. Coleman, critic. After the election of officers, expressions were received from the teachers as to the best methods of making the art work a success. The following committee was appointed on constitution and by-laws: G. B. Lockhart, Misses Mamie A. Haywell and Florence B. Jones, Messrs. W. W. Hill and W. O. Spaulding. The work was divided as follows: The Washington, D. C. teachers, W. S. G. Green, Misses M. A. Hayell, Florence B. Jones, Almeta I. Saxon, Miss A. L. Jackson; studio teacher, Miss Eliza J. Luckey: studio artist, Miss Carrie B. Coleman. Baltimore teachers, B. F. Lineberger and Misses Emma L. Thompson and Annie E. Hurdle. Nashville school, G. B. Lockhart. Columbia, S. C., W. O. Grand commandry of K. T. for District of Columbia, Georgia and Florida, office of R. E. G. C., 315 East Capitol street, Washington, D. C., May 25, 1896, Sir Dorsey F. Seville, captain general of Mt. Calvary commandry No. 4, K. T. and P. G. recorder of the grand commandry of the District of Columbia and jurisdiction, Sir Knight take notice that I, Louis H. Wayne, by virtue of the high power and authority in me vested as the R. E. G. C. of K. T. of the aforesaid jurisdiction do hereby suspend you from all your rights, honors, privileges and benefits belonging to K. T. of this jurisdiction for acts of insubordination and gross violation of your duties as a Sir Knight of this jurisdiction. Said suspension to continue in full force and effect until the annual grand conclave of the grand commandry which will be held in Washington, D. C., on the 12th of October, 1896 Given under my hand and seal the day and date above written L. H. WAYNE,

T. A. JACKSON, R. E. G. C
Grand Recorder.

Thus you can see that I was cut off because I wrote the word Big Chief in THE BEE and because myself and other friends were invited to go to church as K. T.'s in good standing and then treated with the greatest of disrespect by christian and magnaimous Sir Knights (in name only). In a few days a friend of mine showed me a circular, which was printed by Mr. Wayne and Mr. Jackson, which went on to state that I had been suspended for publishing my comment over my fictitious title known as Craftsman in a paper called THE BEE, of Washington, D. C., in which I proclaimed therein that the actions of certain Knight Templars were contemptious or words to that effect. The paper then went on to warn all Sir Knights to not have any Masonic communication with the said D. F. Seville while under said suspension. Then followed the name of R. E. G. C. Wayne. The words which Mr. Wayne took exceptions were as follows: I don't blame the body or the presiding officer, but the Big Chief was the one that played with the truth, and I will say right now that the action of Simon commandry No. 1, K. T. and Louis H. Wayne, R. E. G. C. for District of Columbia on ascension day was contemptible and cowardly. The idea of niviting members of the order in good and regular standing to go to church to commemorate the ascension of our Saviour, and then to take unfair advantage over them was worst than contemptible. Then because a comment appeared in THE BEE giving no names whatever, a Sir Knight must be cut off from all of his benefits and no chance of being able to make any defense whatever. The grand commandry convened June 25, 1896, at 8 30 p. m After going through the usual routine, the Jones and Seville faction of A. A. S. R. a raking over the coals on page 5, Mr. Wayne, R. E. G. C. then submitted his report on the suspension of Sir D. F. Seville. Now, mark you right here. Seville was suspended by this wise Solomon the 12th day of October, 1896. Yet here on the 25th of June, Mr. Wayne reopens the case. Mr. Seville not being present and never has been, submitted his side of the story and then the just, christian, magnanimous and courteous fraters with the exception of three approved of his action in the case. Then to top it off they passed a resolution that within 60 days that all members of John G. Jones consistory who did not resign their membership in the same that they would be expelled from the grand commandry of the District of Columbia At this junction I desire to call your attention to the following: On ascension day when the attention of Mr. Wayne was called to the dirty treatment given by Simon commandry, and he was appealed to in the presence of witnesses, he replied that it was not his affair, but that of the commandry. Now, if it was not his affair, why did he as the R. E. G. C. kick aside the law in the case, and on the 25th day of May, 1896, cut one off without a trial, caused the same to be duly published? Then on the 25th of June reopened the case, stated his side of the story and then on the 12th of October caused me to be expelled and others, and none of us having a trial or given a chance to make a defense whatever, and yet he has nothing to do with it? It is an affair of the commandry. Now, I will state right here, if it was not time to create new commandries and chapters at this junction, why there never was a time for it to be done. (To be continued.)

Ancient arabic order of the mystic shrine, Pyramid temple, enjoys a reputation in the entire oasis of Philadelphia, that it has through the devotion of its members to the new laws of the laws of the order, the unswerving fidelity of a few of its members and unity of action upon all important matters that attends to the welfare of the people, the regular monthly meeting was held on the evening of October 14, which was attended by nearly forty nobles, the Illustrious Potentate Isaac Holland presided in his usual thorough manner, and his other officers were on hand, as usual to perform their duties, as the day marked the anniversary of the birth of the presiding officer, the event was recognized by the members of the band in the presentation to Noble Isaac Holland of a beautiful floral design, representing the emblem of the order. Five poor weary sons of the desert were ushered into the presence of the temple assembled, and received instructions in the preliminary portion of the antique services, subsequently reaching the journey's end and receiving the plaudits of their companions Several new features will be introduced for the purpose of adding to the temple a large number of attractions which will be successfully handled by Noble Isaac Holland, a corps of able assistants, with the aid of a newly organized arab patrol, corps will be organized for the purpose of making the floor work more effective, and also more in the keeping with the ancient arabic method of procedure in the exemplification of our initiation services. We learn that Noble Isaac Holland is working very hard to raise a Pyramid Su Su temple band in Philadelphia for our next Imperial Council which will be held in Providence, R. I., September, 1897. Noble Isaac Holland says that every temple must be well represented at Providence for a grand parade. The hero of the play is a mystic shriner and will no doubt make it very pleasant for the boys by giving them a grand street parade in Providence, R. I. A few touches in the way of byplays that the opportunity is sure to offer the boys. The hot sands, camel's milk, our temple will soon be in good condition for any that come in the oasis of Philadelphia. Illustrious Potentate Isaac Holland has got one of the largest lady auxaugra shrine courts to his Pyramid temple in America, numbering two hundred and still increasing. In looking over THE BEE of the 24th, I find that several of the noble mecca temples have been suffering from the imperial council. I find some of those prominent temples who always stood high in masonry. I was more than surprised to see their names before the public. It is quite a talk in Philadelphia to know the men stood so high in the order. O well, it is like a bird, it flies high but must come down for water. CRAFTSMAN.

TRINITY DEBATING SOCIETY.

The Ciceronion Literary Society of Trinity A. M. E. church, Rev. Logan Johnson, pastor, was organized October 5, 1896, with the following officers: President, Samuel H. Goens; vice president, James Jones; second vice president, Nellie Campbell; secretary, Mrs. G. R. Goens; assistant secretary, Bud Ashton; chaplain, Charles Hackett. They meet every Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Their last program as follows: Bible reading, chorus singing, prayer, approval of minutes, select reading, Mr. Campbell; recitation, Mr. Lee; duet, Misses Edmunds and Thompson; the subject for discussion as read was, "Will a man do more for his wife than for his mother?" Several fine addresses were made, but Mr A. G. Leonard's really eloquent speech practically silenced the opposition. He feelingly portrayed the mother's never failing sympathy and took his seat amidst the enthusiastic applause of the entire audience

Mr. Campbell's very thoughtful speech was ably second by his running mate Mr. J. Jones who as usual endeavored to overwhelm his opponents by sarcasm. A rising vote, however, favored the mother's side and after a neat speech of congratulation by President Goens, the meeting adjourned. Mr. A. G. Leonard will make the opening address next Monday.
